Plus, it's just wrong.

Musicians work very hard for their money. Countless hours of rehearsals, writing, taking the less expensive overnight studio slot, sleeping in our cars and eating fast food just so we can afford to record and play these songs for you.
If you make copies of these songs where does that leave us? We'll probably starve and break up.
Tell your friends: "Buy a copy, save a band."

Thanks,
The hardworking guys in the JMB

P.S. Thanks for buying this one. You are a good person.

The Jeff Mason Band would like to thank Mom and Dad Mason and the entire Mason family for their never ending belief in Jeff and his music.

Jane Mason for her love and continued support of Jeff and the band.

We would also like to thank the Suttons, the Liberatores, the Jordans, the Wyllies, the Andersons, the Brouillards, Paul Carelli, Harry Klane, Dave Guinness,

Steve Davis, John Holden, Sean Correia, Dave Menard, Andrew Decesare, the Magers, the Coppolinos, Kevin Porter, Larry Cugini, Mike Gianfriddo, Alan D'Allessandro, Mike Sarnblad.

All of these great people have supported, influenced or helped this band continue to live their lives playing music.

JEFF MASON BAND  GET BUSY LIVING

NOW

When I see you in the morning
I see you stretch and yawn as if you have no care for time
And when I see you leaving
I stand in disbelief because last night is on my mind
I'm really feeling kind of strange
I hardly feel the pain caused by deceptions of my past
Now that my head is rearranged
I think that I am ready for the walk that's meant to last
It happens all the time
The other day I walked you home
I really should have drove but time was on our side
Either way we were alone
And we took half the day to walk a silly half a mile
I'm really feeling kind of strange
I hardly feel the pain caused by deceptions of my past
Now that my head is rearranged
I think that I am ready for the walk that's meant to last
It happens all the time
Oh yeah
I'm really feeling kind of strange
I hardly feel the pain caused by deceptions of my past
Now that my head is rearranged
I think that I am ready for the walk that's meant to last
It happens all the time

FINE LINE

There's a fine line between love and hate
Between right on time and a minute too late
And there's a fine line between letting go
And pushing away and begging to stay, yeah, yeah
And there's a fine line between showing emotion and knowing emotion
And there's a fine line between going through the motions and love and devotion, love and devotion
It's a fine line, between a kiss for appearance sake ooh , ooh
It's a fine line
Between that... and one meant for healing sake, ooh, ooh
It's a fine line
And there's a fine line between sitting and talking and letting it out
And there's a fine line between the sound of silence and nothing came out
And there's a fine line between making mistakes and choosing to make them
Oh, oh, there's a fine line between breaking a promise and wanting to break it, wanting to break it...

But was the last time that you stopped to smell the roses
Moments just before you learned to run?
Well then please pay some attention
Least to what I've got to say
I got this feeling I can help you out
With the song that I'm to play
You'll live longer if you're happy
It just feels longer when you're sad,
You can make mistakes but still move along
It's mistakes that make you strong
Listen very carefully
Don't feel trapped without your youth
'Cause happiness is just a state of mind, where the capital is truth
The capital is truth
Ooh ooh yeah

And love will find a way
I don't want to cry no more no, no, not that way, I'm not that way
I don't want to cry no more 'cause I'm living for today
Love will find a way
Sometimes to understand a feelin'
You look from different points of view, yes you do
Sometimes that sets your mind a reelin'
Sometimes you just deny the truth
But if truth is what you really seek
Love will find a way
And if you really want to be with me
I know you'll find a way
I don't want to cry no more no, no, not that way, I'm not that way
I don't want to cry no more 'cause I'm living for today
Love will find a way

SMILE

When I saw you the first time
I didn't know what you'd think of me
But then I turned to see your smile
I knew there'd come a time I'd see
But I didn't know what you wanted and I didn't know what you needed cause
Certain things weren't clearly seen
Like what's behind that smile and
Was it really meant for me?
Well do you know the damage a simple little smile can do?
It can grab you by the heart and tear your world apart, it's true
'Cause if you didn't mean it and someone has just seen it
It's a picture in their mind that can only be removed by time
So smile a while for me only if you mean it
Don't smile a lie to me 'cause I might see it
Smile a while for me only if you mean it
Don't smile a lie to me 'cause I might see it
Just smile awhile
Don't smile a lie

GETTING OLDER

So you say that you're getting older
Well time flies when you're having fun

It's a fine line, well; we're not perfect for Heaven's sake
Ooh it's a fine line, Not gonna keep us from Heaven's gate
Ooh it's a fine line
Yeah it's a fine line, oh it's a fine line, yeah it's a fine line
Yeah it's a fine line

CONFUSION BREAKDOWN

My mind is going a mile a minute
Can't sort out the problems that I have in it
And I feel there's something you should know
When I talk nobody listens to me
Nobody cares and still I fail to see
Why should that bother me?
Too many questions I can't answer like
What am I doin' and how did I get here
Still I feel there's something you should know
When I talk nobody listens to me
Nobody cares and still I fail to see
Why should that bother me?
When I talk nobody listens to me
Nobody cares and still I fail to see
Why should that bother me?

THE REASON

Good evenin' people, we're sure glad you could make it
It's time to get up on your feet now and show 'em how to shake it baby, yeah
And then you will find the reason you are here
And then you will find... it's clear
Don't have no hesitation, it's just a waste of time
Just start your own gyration, and let it ease your mind
Let it ease your mind now
And then you will find the reason you are here
Just free up your mind and make it clear

GET BUSY LIVIN'

When we were young we couldn't wait to wake
We played hard all day and wouldn't take a break Somewhere down the road our life got serious
Work took place of play to pay our way
This rat race is making me delirious
I don't think that life's supposed to be that way So
Let's get busy living, there's more to life I heard somebody say
What that means to everyone is different
But the clock of life keeps ticking anyway
Lets get busy living life your way
Sometimes life seems to only go up hill,
Your searching for the top and waiting for the thrill
Time is of the essence make a change
The key is knowing when to rearrange
All you've got to do it is turn around
A change in your direction gets you coasting down now
It's all up to you. you can make a difference
You know what to do
Just take a chance and make a change this instant
Let's get busy living, there's more to life I heard somebody say
What that means to everyone is different
But the clock of life keeps ticking anyway

HITTIN' THE ROAD

I finally feel like it's coming together now.
Though it feels like it's taken forever somehow
Yeah... somehow we'll make it happen
We'll take the world by storm
We'll be the coming attraction yeah yeah yeah
You better get ready
We're hittin' the road yeah yeah
I've learned why life is winding road,
Cause straight ones, lead fast and straight to old, yeah
And I feel like I'm just getting started
Still got a lot to do
I've got a lot in my heart to give away
And some of it's for you
Yeah, you know its all for you

You know its all for you
Yes it is... oh yeah
Nothing's gonna stop us now

MORE TO LIFE

You know there's more to life than sittin' in a corner
To hold it all together you've got to really want it
So limit your praying time to the porcelain god
Keep yourself in line and you'll get what you want
Yes you will, I know you will
Be a puppet on a string, a bird with a broken wing
Or take control of your mental health and watch what luck it brings
Be the paddle or the river, the target or the trigger
The choice is yours to open doors or wallow in self pity, mmm
Cause there's more to what you see
And more to what you do
You can see it, smell it, hear it but feeling makes it true
There's more to what you see
And more to what you do
You can see it, smell it, hear it but feeling makes it true
It's true, I know it's true
You don't know what to do; you think there's something better
Well it doesn't come to you, you've got to go and get it
Just hold your head up high, look it in the eye
You can do what you pursue so baby let's get to it
Let get down and do it, we're gonna do it to it
Oh yeah, oh yeah yeah yeah

LOVE WILL FIND A WAY

I hope to see you in the mornin'
'Cause that will fuel another day
But if I don't I won't be callin'
It's not my style to act that way
Cause if you really want to be with me
I know you'll find a way
I've got days now filled with sunshine
While other guys are overcast
Good thoughts for future are in my mind
So I won't judge you on your past
Just give me truth and honesty
